

Privacy Notice

We collect and hold data for the purpose of providing holiday accommodation services. We may keep your information in a written form and/or a digital form. The records will include basic details about you, such as your name, address and contact details. In some cases we will also have your bank details if you send us a cheque.

We do not share any of this data with anyone else and only retain this data for the purposes of providing a service to our guests.

We are required by Articles in the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017 to provide you with information in the following subsections.

What personal data we collect and why?

We collect your name, address, email address and telephone number(s). Additionally we may have information about number of children in your party and the ages of children. Such information is collected for the sole purposes of enabling you to make and pay for a booking to stay at our self catering accommodation, and for us to be able to contact you with information about the services we provide and directions, as well as finding out your time of arrival, and to prepare the accommodation appropriately for your stay.

All data is collected directly from you, and also occasionally from the Airbnb website, when you make a booking through that source.

What steps do we take to keep your personal data secure?

All such personal data is held on a password-protected computer in our office. Additionally we keep paper records with the same information. The office is not accessible by guest without specific invitation. If you choose to pay by cheque, we would see the cheque which shows your bank and account number, this is paid into our bank without recording any of this information.

Access your data and other rights:

You have the right to access any personal information that we process about you and to request information about:

- What personal information we hold about you
- The purpose of the processing
- The categories of personal data
- How long we intend to store your personal data for
- If we did not collect the data directly from you, information about the source

If you believe we hold any inaccurate data about you, you have the right to ask us to correct the information. Please email lesfriesbarn@gmail.com or telephone +44 1481 252 966

Sharing and disclosing your personal data:

We do not share or disclose any of your personal information to anyone, and hold it for the sole purpose of providing a service to you.

How long will we keep your personal data?

Personal data is stored until December 31st of the year following your holiday with us.
